HOW OLD ARE YOU BY YOUR HAIR?

You may be thirty years, but if you are baldheaded or gray people will surely take you to be many years older. Dandruff is the root of most hair evils. If it were not for the little destructive germs working with a persistency worthy of a better cause there would be but little baldness, and less people prematurely gray.

Parian Sage will help you to keep young looking and attractive. It is guaranteed by O'Donnell's Drug Stores to make hair grow and stop falling out; to remove every bit of dandruff; to stop itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Parian Sage is one of the most invigorating, satisfying, and pleasant hair dressings made. It makes the hair soft, luxuriant and handsome; it is especially praised by women who love beautiful soft hair and who use Parian Sage is sold by druggists everywhere, and a large bottle never costs more than 50 cents—Adv.

SOCIETY FOLK HEAR MME. TAMAKI MIURA

Mrs. William McClellan Ritter was hostess at a delightful musicale yesterday afternoon when her guests were asked to hear Mme. Tamaki Miura, the Japanese prima donna. Mr. and Mrs. Ritter and Mme. Miura, a picturesque and charming figure in her blue crepe kimono embroidered in rose blossoms and girdled with a golden obi brocaded in butterflies, stood at the top of the stairway to receive the guests.

The house was gay with cherry blossoms, quince blossoms, purple iris, and wonderful Japanese lilacs arranged in artistic Japanese fashion. Mme. Miura was assisted by Maestro Sturani at the piano, his sympathetic accompaniments adding in no small measure to the charm of her varied and brilliantly rendered program.

"Aria from 'Iris'."
She gave a beautiful aria from Mascagni's "Iris," in which she created the title role, as well as the lovely "Un bel di Vedremo" from "Madame Butterfly," the opera in which Mme. Miura first became famous. She also sang two Japanese folk songs, "Sakura" and "Hotaria," and "Within a Mile of Edinboro Town," and for an encore the bewitching little Japanese singer gave a delightful rendering of "The Last Rose of Summer."

The musicale was followed by tea. The Japanese ambassador, Mr. Sato; Mr. Sato, of the embassy staff, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, the Swiss minister and Mrs. Ritter and the Danish minister, Mr. Brun, were in the distinguished company asked to meet Mme. Miura. Mrs. Ritter's mother, Mrs. Divine, assisted in welcoming the guests.

NEWS OF ANACOSTIA

Continued complaint is made regarding the street car service in this suburb, and it is likely that hundreds of communications will go to the utilities commission within the next few days asking for relief. Each morning and evening the cars operating on this line are overcrowded, and in many instances persons are late for their work because of this condition.

Robert F. Bradbury, prominent business man of Twining City and founder of Bradbury Heights, was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital yesterday, where it will be necessary to perform an operation.

Anacostia Lodge, No. 21, F. A. A. M., will present the fellow craft degree at its meeting tonight in the Masonic hall, with E. E. Fisher, warden, in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Entwistle and family, long time residents of this suburb, have purchased a farm at Sullyland, Md., and have moved into their new home.

'MUSIC CLUB MEETS.

The Monday Morning Music Club met today at the New Willard. Mrs. Helen Corbin Heintz gave several piano solos. Edgar Priest directed the chorus of fifty voices. The soloists included Miss Alice Edwards, Mrs. Dickey, and Mrs. W. K. Wilson. Miss Lucy Breckenstein played accompaniment.

BENEFIT DANCE.

The third annual benefit dance for the Hebrew Home for the Aged will be given in the old Masonic Temple tomorrow evening. There will be a prize waits.

There Are Five Good Reasons

Why You and Every Other Housekeeper in Washington Should Use

Holmes Milk-Made Bread

The Bread That's Made in the Real Home Way

1. It contains more nutriment than any other loaf of bread that's baked.

2. It is made with pure milk, with all the cream left in, just as it comes from the farm.

3. It is thoroughly well baked in the cleanest and most modern bakery in the District.

4. It is the biggest value—the heaviest loaf baked in the District for the money.

5. It is delivered to you fresh from our ovens in sanitary wrappers (which cost three times as much as a year ago).
